What's Needed?

Document your property

Take pictures and videos of your home, both inside and outside.
If your home is damaged or destroyed you'll be ready to quickly file a claim.

What's Needed?

Capture what you have of value

Take pictures and videos of items of value in your home. If your home is damaged or destroyed, what you have of value will likely also be damaged or destroyed. If you need to file a claim, you'll know what you had of value and have proof of it.
